Prophecy Development Closes $2,600,000 Private Placement With Insiders and Strategic Investor

Vancouver, British Columbia, September 9, 2019 – Prophecy Development Corp. (“Prophecy” or the “Company”) (TSX:PCY, OTCQX:PRPCF, Frankfurt:1P2N) is pleased to report that it has closed the private placement (the “Placement”) previously announced on August 26, 2019. The Placement raised gross cash proceeds of $2,600,000 through the issuance of 13,000,000 common shares (the “Shares”) of Prophecy, at a price of $0.20 per Share.

Company management and directors purchased 2 million Shares of the Placement and one strategic investor purchased majority of the remainder of the Placement.

The Company paid $10,000 in cash and issued 525,000 Shares as finder’s fees.

The Company has 109,341,127 shares outstanding after the closing of the Placement.

All Shares are subject to a four month and one day hold period.

The Placement proceeds are expected to be used for the Company’s mineral project development and for general working capital purposes.
